

Friend

It's the most wonderful time of the year, right? Well, not for everyone.

Each night, hundreds of veterans are sleeping in homeless camps all around Indianapolis. They are hoping to make it through the night in sub 30 degree temperatures, with hardly anything to help them survive.

Thankfully, HVAF has Rodney Jackson - who goes to the homeless camps and provides them with any items they need, while encouraging them to receive HVAF's help.

We could not help Indy's homeless veterans without your support. And we cannot continue to help without you.

When you join us today for Giving Tuesday, you are providing warm winter gear for our homeless veterans: tents, gloves, coats, hats, and more.

Please consider donating to HVAF and help our homeless Hoosier Heroes.

Sincerely,

Ashlee Walls
